Vol. 38--No. 43. Beaver, Wednesday, October 22, 1862. Established 1818

DEATH OF GEN. STEVENS.

[Brig Gen. Isaac Ingalls Stevens who was shot through the brain at the battle of Chantilly, fell with the flag in his hand which he had seized and borne forward to cheer on his men in the charge which stemmed the threatening assault of the rebelf on the flank of our army; and when he was taken up an hour after, the staff was tightly grasped in his hands.]

He fell—that glorious eye
In sudden night was quenched;
But still the Flag he lifted high
And onward bore to victory,
In his dead hand was clenched.

He sank—but o'er his head
The drooping ensign fell,
As if its folds it fondly spread
Above the forehead, pale and dead,
Of him who loved it well.

He sleeps—unlock that clasp!
The hero's work is done!
Another hand that staff shall grasp,
And, if need be, till life's last gasp
Like him shall bear it on.

He rests—the true and brave!
And where his relics lie,
In holier beauty long shall wave
(Fit canopy for freemen's grave!)
God's starry flag on high.

He lives—his deeds inspire
New strength for duty's stripe;
Now myriads burn with nobler fire
Onward to press—to mount up higher
And win the eternal life!

ALL IS FOR THE BEST.

BY FINLEY JOHNSON.

Repine not thou when dark days come,
For come they surely must,
Nor let misfortune's surging storms,
Prostrate thee in the dust;
But bravely stem the rising waves,
With hope within thy breast,
Remember—with a faithful heart
That all is for the best.

Have courage in the darkest hour,
And tears and moans despise,
For oft thy sorrows and thy woes
Are angels in disguise.
Let hope and faith within thy soul
Be each a welcome guest,
To whisper thee—"Cheer up! cheer up!
For all is for the best."

Then fling away all foolish fear,
Be foremost in the van,
Trust like a child in Heaven's God,
While acting like a man.
Confide in Him and freely tell
The sorrows in thy breast,
Hope—and be happy in the thought
That all is for the best.

A MATHEMATICAL HOSPITAL PATIENT.—On our outward trip we had on board a tall, gaunt looking volunteer, who had been in the Hospital. He was from Eastern Ohio, and was full of dry humor, which had a peculiar zest coming as it did from such a dilapidated specimen of human kind. I asked him:

"How long were you in the Hospital?"

"Stayed just five days; couldn't stand it any longer."

"Why so? Were you not well treated?"

"Well, you see when I went in there were six patients. The first day they buried one."

"Well, what of that?"

"Nothing, only the next day they buried another."

"They must have been severe cases, and made it exceedingly unpleasant for you?"

"Decidedly unpleasant! I knew my turn would come in time. I went in on Monday, and if I stayed, I would be carried out on Saturday. So I made my calculation, and on Friday I packed my knapsack and went away. If I hadn't, I'd surely have been buried on Saturday. Six days; one man each day. I couldn't stand that!"

A JEWISH BREACH OF PROMISE CASE.—In the Supreme Court at New York, on Tuesday, the case of Charlotte Weeder against Jacob Samuel was tried. The plaintiff—a pretty young woman, scarcely twenty-one years of age—sues the defendant to recover damages in the sum of $10,000, for breach of promise of marriage. She alleged that in August, 1859, he agreed to marry her, and the contract was made in due form, according to the custom of their people; that he now refuses to marry her, although she had refused several eligible offers from other gentlemen for her hand.—The defendant denies having made any such promise. The trial of the case excites no little interest. The young lady herself was the principal witness. Her testimony substantially sustained the above statement.

Prentice's Obituary of his Son.

Geo. D. Prentice, of the Louisville Journal, thus speaks of his son who was killed in the rebel army, during the fight at Augusta, Ky:

Wm. Courtland Prentice died on Monday last at Augusta, Ky., of wounds received in the conflict on the preceding Saturday. He perished in the cause of the rebellion! It is not in the columns of a newspaper, it is only in the family circle or in the hush of solitude, that the emotions of a parent over such an event should have utterance. The tears of weeping eyes and fast-trickling drops of bleeding hearts are not for the public gaze. The deepest agonies should be content to fold their sombre wings in the soul. Consolation could not come from the world's sympathy; it can be looked for only from God and his angel Time. Nay, there are griefs that time itself has no power to allay or sooth, griefs that like running streams are deepening their channels forever.

Wm. Courtland Prentice was no common young man. He was remarkable in his powers, and in his temperament. A model of manly beauty, he had extraordinary intellectual energy, a strong thirst for strange curious knowledge, and a deep passion for all that is sublime and beautiful in poetry and nature. He was generous, manly, high-hearted, and of a courage that no moral peril, come in what form it might, could daunt. He exulted in looking destruction face to face in all its ways. He loved wild and dangerous adventures for the very danger's sake. His eagle spirit lived among the mountain crags and shouted back to the shouts of the storm. Although kind, unselfish, and humane, he was impetuous, passionate, and of unconquerable prejudices. He was not unfrequently unjust in his judgments, and he permitted nothing to stand between him and the execution of his purposes.

This young man, if he had always directed his energies judiciously, could have made himself a distinguished ornament in any profession of life. He might have been an able and honored statesman in the service of the Republic. But an intense Southern sympathy, in spite of the arguments, the remonstrances, and the entreaties of those who dearly loved him, made him an active rebel against his country. And, after a brief five weeks to [illegible] he fell among strangers, he fell among foes; meanwhile, far away from his family, the kindly ministrations of those against whose cause his strong right arm had been raised. O, if he had fallen in his country's service, fallen with his burning eyes fixed in love and devotion upon the flag that for more than three-fourths of a century has been a star of worship to his ancestors, his early death, though still terrible, might have been borne by a father's heart; but, alas! the reflection that he fell in armed rebellion against that glorious old banner, now the emblem of the greatest holiest cause the world ever knew, is full of desolation and almost of despair.

And yet we shall love to think of Courtland Prentice, that brave and noble though misguided youth, during the little remnant of our lives. Our love for him, undimmed by tears and grief, is will reman an amaranthine flower upon the grave of our buried years.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, alluding to the late death of Courtland Prentice, adds some incidents of interest.

William Courtland Prentice was twenty-five years old, and the elder son of George D. Prentice, Esq. The second son of Mr. Prentice—Clarence Prentice—left home for Memphis in May, 1861, and was soon after placed on the staff of Colonel Yell, of Arkansas. Courtland Prentice took with him his own rifle, leaving six other fine one at his farm at the mouth of Salt River, which were presents accumulating from his boyhood and which are now with a member of the family at Louisville. He left his home to join the Confederate army five weeks before his death. His mother followed him four or five miles, with a hope of persuading him to return, but he declined her entreaties, saying: "Mother, I implore you not to ask me to stay. Honor calls me. I have talked long enough. I must now do some thing else, and show myself in my true colors."

Mr. Prentice has regretted that his house is divided and his sons not with him; but with a high and proud confidence in their honor and bravery, his deep, tender love for him has never swerved. When he heard of his son Courtland's death he exclaimed: "O! my poor boy, had I a thousand lives how gladly would I give them all for you." He is crushed completely by the untimely death of his son, and his devotion to the Union should spare the pain that unfounded statements about his dead and erring child must inflict upon his lacerated heart.

WHAT BECOMES OF THE PINS?—An old sewer in Birmingham, England, has answered the question, "what becomes of the pins?" It has lately been opened for repairs, for the first time in many years, and was found to be paved with a deposit of countless millions of pins, compacted into a mass as hard as the slag from blast furnace. Every sewered town would probably furnish a similar spectacle.

Wonderful Tenacity of Life.

A letter from Rev. A. M. Stewart, Chaplain of the "Old Thirteenth," published in the United Presbyterian, relates the following remarkable instance of tenacity of life which came under the writer's observation. The warm humanity which impelled the writer to care so tenderly for the dying man is a characteristic trait, recognized by all who know him:

On the afternoon of Friday, while walking through a beautiful open wood where, as seen by the uniforms of the dead, a New York regiment and the rebels had met in fierce and deadly encounter, I stopped for a moment to gaze upon a group of seven or eight Union and rebel soldiers lying close together, and all seeming still in death. One of these, a rebel, as known by his dress, and apparently about twenty one years of age, had something more life like about him than the others. Interested in his appearance, I went near, and discovered that he was still breathing, felt his pulse, and found it firm and regular. Though so sadly and strangely familiar with mutilations of every possible form, with sudden deaths from wounds, as well as great tenacity of life, yet did this case excite, not only my deepest curiosity, but downright astonishment.

Life, for days together, under such conditions, had never before been witnessed. A union of soul and body for so long, with such a wound, had not been supposed possible. A Minnie ball had struck the young man on the right temple, just in the edge of the hair and passed directly through the head, coming out on the opposite side nearly in the same position as in the right temple. A hole was made thro' the head sufficiently large to have pushed the fore finger along the course of the bullet.

The poor fellow was evidently lying in the precise position in which he fell three day previous. A handful of brains had oozed out from the ghastly wound. I called upon two men in citizen's dress, and a straggling soldier, who at the time was near, to help remove him to an old church or school house not far distant.

We spread a blanket, laid him on it, and, each taking one corner, carried him to the old waste, long [illegible], all riddled with shell and ball, the relic of the late battle, pulled two [illegible] or an old broken chair, and laid from my canteen the blood and gore was washed from his head and face, water poured on his parched lips and into his mouth. In a few minutes he so revived as to be able faintly to speak.

By this time our regiment was in motion, and lest its course and future position might be missed I was compelled hastily to rejoin it for in the marching and countermarching in the frequent changes in place of a hundred thousand men, on and near battle-field, should one lose his regiment, he might readily spend a whole half day in fruitless efforts gain to find it.

That night we camped between Sharpsburg and the Potomac. The next day (Saturday,) we were ordered to Williamsport, 12 miles distant, and our way led back across the battle-field. When opposite the old building I ran aside, while the column moved on, to look after the poor young rebel. Just as left the preceding day he was lying, no one seemingly having been there in the meantime. He was still alive, and breathing more freely. At once recognizing my voice, he answered intelligently a few brief questions. Notwithstanding an effort to refrain, as his head and face were again bathed, my tears would flow down to mingle with the water. A piece of hard cracker, the only food at the time in my haversack was broken fine, moistened with tears and put into his mouth which he tried to eat.

In reply to my query: "Do you think of anything else I can now do for you?" he answered "Nothing, dear sir." Commending him to the care of a merciful God, in a few words of prayer, I turned away and left him with feelings of indescribable sadness.

STRANGER IN TOWN.—We have been gratified by a call from Frederick Ayer, Esq., the businessman of the firm of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell. A short acquaintance with gentleman convinces us that not [illegible] Doctor's skill in compounding his [illegible] is alone concerned in the cures consumption of them; but it takes business talent of no ordinary measure to pass them around world. Mr. Ayer, manifestly, has ese abilities and the success of his use shows that he uses them. [Memphis Whig" Tenn.]

☞ Parson Brlow, in his address recently the Michigan State Fair in Detroit, said:

"Regarding Mr. Lincoln's proclamation, I will say it if he means to free the slaves of rebels in arms, and pay loyal men for em, am for it, out and out. [Enthusiastic applause.] I think the proclamation well-timed, and fortunate at this moment. If it had been made a month or six weeks later, the rebels would have made a proposition that we let England to take their negro and take them and I thank God that has not taken the starch out of em." Cheers.

Daniel Webster in his Coffin.

We find the following account of the private funeral of Col. Fletcher Webster, and of the inspection of his illustrious father's remains, in the "Plymouth Rock:"

The Tomb at Marshfield once again opens wide its portals to receive the last of the sons of the "great expounder."

The funeral of Col. Webster took place in Marshfield on the 10th ult. The body was was brought down from Boston in a richly caparisoned hearse with four horses, by way of Hingman and South Shore. Rev. Mr. Alden, conducted the service, the body resting on his father's writing table in the library, according to his dying request. A large procession followed his body to the tomb, where the coffin mas deposited with the family whom a nation mourns.

By request of Peter Harvey, Esq., and several others, the oaken box containing the great statesman's coffin was opened, and the metalic cover of the glass removed. How were the feelings of those personal friends stirred within them to find those lineaments and features which no man ever looked upon upon to forget, retaining the same color and impression natural as when ten years ago they gave him up to the grave.

The eyes were more sunken, but the heavy shadow beneath the brows were always there in life. Even in death, and for a decade the captive of a grave, that kingly presence and sheechless awe as when in the living temple of his matchless mind. Said one who looked upon his face again: "I forgot all else, and cannot tell you anything of the tomb or surrounding objects." The velvet pall with its rich embroidery was in perfect preservation, though deprived of its primitive gloss.

In silence the lid was dropped and the box reclosed. Farewell, thou great departed!—Earth's communion with thee is o'er. No more shall human eye behold that face over which thought and feeling once flashed the light and shade of that "imperial mind." Rest, noble statesman, with thy patriot sons. Thy memory "still lives" enshrined in a nation's admiration and gratitude."

"THE SPIRIT OF '76."—The lad—for he was but a stripling, though he had seen hard service—lay stretched out on the seat of the car. Another lad, his arm in a sling, came and took a seat behind him, gazing upon him with mournful interest. Looking up to me, for I was accompanying the sick boy to his home, he asked:

"Is he a soldier?" "Yes."

"Of what regiment?"

"The Thirteenth Illinois cavalry."

"Are you a soldier?" "Yes."

"Where do you belong."

"In the 105th regiment of Illinois volunteers."

"The 105th regiment. That sounds well. Illinois is doing nobly."

"I did belong to the 11th Illinois Infantry."

"Then how came you in the 105th?"

"I was wounded at the battle of Fort Donelson, so that I was pronounced unfit for service and discharged. But I recovered from my wound, and when they commenced raising this regiment in my neighborhood, I again enlisted."

Hitherto the sick boy had been perfectly still. Now he slowly turned over, looked up with glistening eyes, stretched forth his hand with the slow movements of a sick man to the top of the seat, and without saying a word, eagerly grasped the hand of the new recruit. The patriotism that glowed in those wan features, prompted those slow, tremulous movements like electricity, ran through every heart. The twice enlisted youth, as soon as he saw his intention, delighted at the appreciation and reflection of his own spirit, grasped the outstretched hand, exclaiming "Bully for you!"

Words cannot describe the effect upon the passenger, as they saw those hands clasped, in token of mutual esteem for love of country, a mutual pledge that each was ready to give his life, his all, for that country; they felt that the spirit of '76 still survived.

SELF-MUTILATION.—A day or two ago a case of deliberate self-mutilation occurred in this city. A man who had enlisted at one of the recruiting offices went to the recruiting officer and offered $15 to be released. Of course the officer declined. The next that was known of the dissatisfied recruit was his application to a surgeon to have his foot dressed, the large and two or three other toes on one of his feet having been cut clear off. He suffered severely but would not communicate the manner when the mutilation was effected. He had secured what he desired—release from military service, but at what cost of manhood and physical suffering and inconvenience? We did not learn the man's name or where he belonged.—Toledo Com.

☞ An individual in Cincinnati is blessed with a wife who run away from him four times, within the last two years. When she experiences an inclination to depart, he permits her to go, and when she becomes weary of absence, he takes her again to his bosom. He is a philosopher.

Different Views Respecting Marriage.

Dr. Thompson, in his "Letters from Europe," handsomely hits off the different views which he obtained among different classes and different communities respecting marriage. One says:

"I wish to take advice about a serious matter that weighs heavily on my mind."

"What is it?"

"Getting married. Is it best?"

"Well, whom have you in view? If she is young, handsome and virtuous, the sooner you get her, the better. Why is she?"

"Oh, nobody in particular; it is marrying in the abstract that I am thinking about."—That is young Germany.

"Zounds! I love her, and will have her, if I have to swim the river for her."—Young America.

"No use to deny me, or run from me. Where you go, I will go; where you stop, I will stop; where you live, I will live; where you die, I will die; and where you are buried, there will I be buried.—This is young Ireland.

"She is worth three thousand one hundred and twenty-seven pounds, six shillings and fourpence halfpenny, which, under the circumstances, is not quite sufficient."—Young England.

The Tax on Tobacco.

The heavy tax on tobacco, imposed under the internal revenue law, is already beginning to be felt here, and a considerable falling off in the demand for the article is experienced. Our readers have but a faint idea of the extent to which this tax must affect the tobacco trade; but when we state that under the law some of our manufacturers will have to pay $300 a day to the Government, they will be better able to arrive at an intelligent conclusion of the subject. There is another thing, too, which will operate against the manufacturers, unless their whole system of business be revolutionized. The generally give a credit of four months on their sales, but under the law they are required to make returns every month to the collector. They will thus be compelled to pay the tax long before they receive payment for the tobacco, a thing which, considering the great amount, will be out of the question. The result of this will be they will have to do a all.—Har. Pa.

SUCCESS.—A single effort will not make man successful in any undertaking. He must wait patiently but not in listless idleness, nor in useless pastime, but in constant, steady and cheerful endeavor; always willing to fulfil cheerfully his alloted task; that when the occasion comes he may be equal to it. The talent of success consists in doing well what you can do, and if you are successful it is because you deserve it and not because you seek it—success is no game of chance it is a very indiscreet and troublesome ambition which cares so much about fame; about what the world says of us—to be always looking into the face of others for approval, to be always anxious about the effect of what we say or do. Such a course will never ensure a lasting success. The only sure way of becoming entirely successful is to be honest, to do what we think is right regardless of the opinion of others.

SOCIETY.—The pleasure of society depends more upon females than any other. Gentlemen expect to be entertained. Children are out of the question, and therefore it rests upon woman what society shall be. The pleasure of an evening's entertainment is graduated by the capacity of the hostess to interest her visitors in each other, and make them forget that their own identity is to be lost in efforts to make every one at ease. That is the great secret of true enjoyment. Some ladies will enter the drawing or social circle, where every person's neighbor appears like an iceberg, and the whole atmosphere is chilly and constrained, and by their genial well-timed playfulness, throw sunshine and warmth all over the room, till all mingle in that easy yet dignified cordiality that ever characterizes true geniality. As a lady aptly expressed it, the hostess is a keynote, and upon her depends the concord of sweet sounds and the sweetness of the melody.

The Potato Crop.

The round potato crop is likely to prove unusually short in the neighboring counties in this State and New Jersey. Good round potatoes are now selling in this market at 80 cents a bushel. Some of this apparent advance in price is no doubt attributable to the depreciation of the currency, which takes of it to buy a given amount of any commodity; but independent of this the crop has been materially shortened by drought. In Missouri the same fact of a short potato crop is noticed. We see it stated that hundreds of acres will not yield twenty busels to the acre and many that will not yield ten bushels.—Phil. Ledger.

Mourning for the Dead.

"And you must not put on mourning."

"Oh, mother!" and lifted her head with a beseeching glance.

"No, dear, I forbid it; I would have you think of me in another way than that suggested by gloomy colors.—Wear white as often as you please; let that be your mourning garb, or rather let it be an emblem of my happiness and the purity of heaven. Think of me as being arrayed in the shining white of heaven, not as mere dust, senseless and soulless in the tomb.—In the midst of music; of flowers, of every innocent enjoyment, keep my memory fresh, for there is music in heaven; immortal gardens bloom there and its delights it hath not entered into the heart of man to conceive.—In this way, my darling, you can in one sense keep me by you, and say to yourselves many times, "No, I am not motherless." As soon as the first heaviness of your grief wears away, you will love to feel that I am resting—that I am basking in the sunshine of God's great love—that I am patiently waiting for you."—Mrs. Jameson.

EXPEDITION TO TEXAS URGED.—Col. Hamilton of Texas is urged for the position of Military Governor of Texas, with General Clay as commander of the army.

The two to go together with a division of soldiers and 50,000 armed citizens. The former to take and the latter to hold, occupy and cultivate the soil of that State. This expedition is intended to co-operate with that of Eli Thayer to Florida, and it is believed that the success of the two would go forward crushing the rebellion by quenching the hope of its leaders in the direction of Mexico and Central America on the one hand, or Cuba on the other. Five thousand men have already offered themselves to Thayer, and a wealthy ship owner of New York has proffered three first-class steamers for the enterprise.

STRATEGY OF A SQUIRREL.—One of the squirrels on Boston common, having been in the habit of helping himself to a peanut now and then from a fruit stand near the West street gate, the woman who tends the stand covered up the peanuts with a cloth.—When the squirrel next came on a foraging expedition, and finding the nuts covered, he seized a peach and made off with it. The woman gave chase, and the squirrel dropped the peach but finding that he had drawn the [illegible] two or three rods from the stand, he darted back on the double quick, and siezing a nut befor the woman could get back, made off with it, much to the amusement of the by-standers.

A detachment of 200 men of the 120th regiment are now in Stark county—gathering up the stragglers, of whom about 150 remain behind.—Columbiana Ledger, 17th.

☞ Brigham is building a theatre at Salt Lake City. The building will be 140 x 80 feet, the stage is 64 feet deep, the height from floor to the ceiling is 40 feet, and the dome 65 feet. It has three tiers of galleries and the usual inside arrangments. It is built of stones cut from the mountains, and will be finished off mostly with white pine. From forty to fifty workmen are employed, and it is expected that the building will be finished some time in November.

☞ An Irishman, catching a thief's hand in his pocket at the post office, the other day, knocked the rascal down, and began to trample on his carcass as if he was dancing a Fardowner's jig.

"What's that for?" said a bystander.

"Oh!" said Pat, "it's some small change the fellow wanted, and faith I'm after giving him a few post office stamps."

A SMALL WATCH.—The smallest watch in the London Exhibition, is a minute affair—smaller than a pea, set in a lady's finger ring. It goes for six hours, and is worth two hundred and fifty pounds.

☞ A little fellow, not more than five years old, hearing some gentlemen at his father's table discussing the familiar line, "An honest's the noblest work of God," said he knew it wasn't true; his mother was better than any man that was ever made.

☞ "Is that bell ringing for fire, Davy?" inquired a youth from the Green Mountains.

"No; they have too much fire somewhere, and they ring the bell for water."

☞ Of all the annoying men in the world deliver us from the one who thinks himself more righteous than his neighbor—who imagines that his way to Heaven is only true way, and that those who don't believe in him disbelieve in God.

Meeting of the Return Judges.

The Board of Return Judges met on Friday last to present and count up the result of the votes in the different districts in the county. The Judges from Pulaski and New Sewickly, however, did not appear to offer their returns until all the other Judges had left except one, the President of the Board. In fact the returns from New Sewickly were not presented until about 9 o'clock at night, when there were none of the Board present but the President and Clerks. The President, as we learn, received the votes of these townships, although admitting that it was done illegally and contrary to law believing, however, that justice and equity required him to do so. Of this we have no complaint to make. But we do complain that this Board as then constituted refused to receive the army vote when coming before it regularly certified by the proper officer. Will they say that they could not receive it legally?—Then we ask them why did they receive returns that they knew were illegal before this? Have not our soldiers in the field as much right to get their vote counted irregularly as those of Pulaski and Sewickly? Are they thus with impunity to be disfranchised because they are away from home fighting for our rights and our liberties by an arbitrary board? We denounce it as a gross outrage upon our soldiers in the field, we care not who the authors are. We believe, however, in that there is a remedy, and we hope it at once will be applied. It is probable due, however, to the Board as it is claimed to be, to say that we understood that they refused to count the army vote because there was a section in the act of Assembly which directs them to adjourn to some day in November. But they did not do this. If they believed the law required them to do this, it was their duty to do so.

We hold that this section in the law is only directory, and was only intended to be applied to so much of the army vote as is not received at the regular meeting of the Board of Return Judges, and that they should have adjourned until that time to count the army vote not yet received. What we have said is not for the purpose of finding fault. We believe it was done honestly but mistakenly.

The State Election.

From the latest intelligence received it seems that the Breckenridgers have carried this State by a small majority. As yet we are unable to give the figures. We have been swindled and cheated by misrepresentations and lies manufactured and circulated by the leaders of this party for the promotion of the schemes of the rebels. The masses will see their mistake when to late. It is not strange that so many could be deceived by the very men who brought this war and this ruin upon us—by the very men who brought upon us all this enormous debt and taxation. Yes, by the very men who are using every means to continue this terrible rebellion, and finally to overthrow our good Government.

Reader, the election is over, but we ask you to think of these things. Let them be remembered for all time to come. Although we have triumphed most gloriously in Beaver County we can and will do better when another election day comes around, and if we are defeated in the State let us not be discouraged; we may meet with reverses—truth may slumber for a while, but it is mighty and will arise and finally prevail, and crush treason and the wrong, and cause the opposers of the right to hide their faces in shame.

☞ We fear from all accounts that our candidate for Congress in this District, is defeated, unless the army vote is counted. Beaver and Lawrence has done nobly for the cause of the Union. But we fear that there has been enough of treason in Greene and Washington to overwhelm us. If so, we must bear it, however hard, and willingly submit to the Constitution, the Laws and the will of the people, and not do like the Breckenridgers, by threatening resistence.

☞ In our next issue we will refer to, and point out some of the falsehoods and misrepresentations—some of the foul, corrupt and dishonest means resorted to by the Breckenridge Hughes Locofoco party before the election to defeat loyal candidates and to secure the election of those who would assist them in their treasonable designs.

☞ The Star of last week charges us with dealing unjustly and ungentlemanly with them in our last week's paper; but looking upon this language as exceedingly mild and courteous on the part of the Star as compared with its former course, and as we desire no controversy with it so long as it deals anything like fairly, and whilst we still claim to be just and gentlemanly we seek no quarrel with our neighbor, therefore come with a flag of truce.—Yet, still we cannot let misrepresentations of our candidates and party upon the eve of an election go unrebuked. The Star must abandon the idea that "anything is right in politics."—Political dishonesty is moral dishonesty, and whatever is politically wrong is morally wrong, and there is no rule of right by which a man can be justified in vilifying and misrepresenting his opponent for the sake of political or personal victory, and there is no principle by which he can be justified in doing a thing before the election that is wrong after it.

We would advise the Star not to allow itself to become so easily "nettled"—not to become so "blinded by partizan malevolence and gangrened by political opinions," as to lead it from the paths of honesty and truth. We invite it to return from the evil of its way and go with us and aid us in our efforts to uphold the constitution and the laws, and in putting down this monstrous rebellion. It has as much interest as we in the future welfare of this great and glorious country, or at least it ought to have. Then let it rise above all its petty and party jealousies and unite under our banner—that Star Spangled Banner that has so long waved over the land of the free and the home of the brave." Let it come and stand by the old flag and it will receive a hearty welcome.

Our readers will excuse us for again referring to the Stars and Stripes. We revere them and can't help the allusion.

We again say to the Star, come and let us stand together in battling for our common country.

☞ The Draft in Beaver County was made on the day to which it had been postponed by the Governor, viz: Thursday, the 16th inst., in peace and quiet, and without an unpleasant occurrence. We are informed by the Commissioner, that in all his travels through the County, and with all his large and crowded meetings, not a shadow of a disrespectful word was uttered against any of the officers of the Government. Two hundred names have been drawn, notices of the persons drawn in all the townships, which have been served, and all goes on quietly and orderly. The Commissioner has had a very trying task and duty to perform. He has devoted all his power of mind and body, day and night, in the discharge of his duty.—He has not only superintended, but he has done the responsible part of the work himself, as we learn, except the actual drawing.

Mistakes may have occurred, yet we have heard of none; but it cannot be expected that under the circumstances surrounding the Commissioner in his arduous duties, that no mistakes could have occurred, notwithstanding he has labored hard and taken all pains to avoid them and to keep and maintain a kindly and patriotic feeling toward the State and National Governments.

Mr. Patterson has done great credit to himself, county and State in the discharge of the duties of an office which was conferred upon him entirely unsolicited.

☞ We give in our paper of this week the official returns of the election in this county, which shows that we have carried the county by majorities ranging from about three to seven hundred, including the army vote so far as heard from. This is doing very well for old Beaver. Nearly all the townships have done their whole duty under the circumstances. If the voters in the army had been at home our majority would have been at least 1200 or 1500. Of those of our soldiers in the field, at least 5 to 1 belong to our party. Whether the votes given by the defenders of our country will be counted remains to be seen. Every effort will be made by sympathizers with treason to prevent it, we know; but whether they will succeed or not remains to be told.

The Army Vote.

We have not yet received the election return from all the companies in the army; but will give a full table of their vote next week. It may run our majority up to 800 or 900 hundred in the County, although but a small portion of those in the army had an opportunity to cast their votes.

☞ We have elected our State Senator and Members of the Assembly from this District, all of whom will represent us faithfully, and will endeavor to thwart every effort of the Breckenridgers in their treasonable purposes.

MELANCHOLLY ACCIDENT.—Joseph McCready, a highly respectable citizen of Greene township and Elizabeth, lamp with carbon oil from a can, on Tuesday evening, the 2d inst., the candle was brought in too close proximity with the oil, and the can exploded, burning both so badly that they expired in a few hours. They were both much esteemed by all who knew them. Let others take warning.

ATTENTION DEPUTY MARSHALS FOR ENROLLING THE MILITIA IN THE VARIOUS TOWNSHIPS AND BOROUGHS OF BEAVER COUNTY.—All said Deputy Marshals are requested to call immediately with the undersigned at his office in Beaver, to make out their bills for services, probate and receipt the same, preparatory to their being forwarded to the accounting officers at Harrisburg for adjudication. The undersigned being authorized to attend to the settlement of said claim.

HENRY HICE.

TO THE EDITOR OF ARGUS.—Dear Sir: I deem it due to a Religious Society of people of Beaver County to ask you for a small space in your paper to correct some statements made in various parts of the county in regard to the part taken by them in this war. I mean the "Friends," or "Quakers." From my knowledge of those who have "Volunteered" from Quaker families, and of their contributions in various ways in the support of the war and Volunteering, I think they have averaged equally well with the most liberal of other Societies.

And as a strong fact in the favor of that Society's support of this war I would make it known that while I was authorized to exempt all who pleaded "conscientious scruples to bearing arms," and was instructed to have as many copies of a form of affirmation printed for those who wished to claim exemption on that ground, as I thought would be required, I ordered 150 copies printed; and I had occasion to use only one copy for any claiming to be of a "Friend" Society or Quaker family—and he was a very young man!

JAMES PATTERSON,
Com. of Drafting.

☞ If Pennsylvania has had her share of privation and sacrifices in this slaveholding rebellion against the freest Government on earth, Indiana and Ohio have had theirs. The Republicans and loyal Democrats in these States volunteered by thousands, and the result is the triumph of the so-called Democracy in both. It is something to remember that the Breckinridgers elected to Congress from these two States generally outbid the Union candidates in professions of devotion to the Union. How such men can hold seats in the National Legislature and vote against the Government is a problem which the future must solve. In the meanwhile, let us hope that before that Congress assembles the rebellion will be crushed and the Union restored.—Phil. Press.

Pennsylvania Election.

PHILADELPHIA, October 18.—The official returns from Luzerne county give Slenker, Democrat, for Auditor General, a majority of 2,821; Barr, Democrat, for Surveyor General, 1,839 majority. The official majority for Charles Dennison, Democrat, for Congress in the Twelth Congressional district is 2,894.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.—The Democratic majority for the State Ticket, is 438; for Lazear, Congress, Dem., 511; for Assembly, Hopkins and Glenn, Dem., are elected over M'Giffin and M'Donald, Rep., by majorities of 417 and 476. The remainder of the Democratic county ticket has a majority of over 400.

SCHUYLKILL COUNTY.—The entire Democratic ticket was elected by over 1,500 majority. Slenker's majority 1,594; Barr's, 1,614. The draft takes 1667 men from the County. All the lawyers except one were drawn in Tamaqua; it will be a peacable village next season.

ARMSTRONG COUNTY.—The Democratic ticket is elected by majorities ranging from two to four hundred.—In the Legislative district composed of Armstrong and Westmoreland, the Democratic candidates, M'Cullough, Wakefield and Graham, are of course elected.

BEDFORD COUNTY.—The entire Democrat County ticket is elected by majorities of from 400 to 1200, Cessnals majority probably reaching that figure.

ERIE COUNTY.—In this county the Republican Union ticket is elected.—In the 10th Congressional district Glenni W. Scofield is elected by a majority of 700, or thereabouts.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY.—Archibald M'Allister, War Democrat, is probably elected from the District. The entire Union county ticket is elected.

LAWRENCE COUNTY.—The Republicans elected their entire county ticket by about 1650.

MERCER COUNTY.—Gives the Republican ticket about 200 majority.

VENANGO COUNTY.—As usual, gives a good majority for the entire Republican ticket.

BLAIR CUNTY.—The whole Republican count ticket is elected except the Treasurr and Poor Director.

GREENE COUNTY.—The reported majority for Lzear is 2,148.

Northampton county—Official Democratic majority 1,464.

Electon Pennsylvania.

HARRISBURG, October 19.—The result of the elect in regard to the State ticket is still in doubt, but the probabilities are in favor of Democratic majority.

Fifteen Unions are no doubt elected to Congress including Bailey, in the 16th Distri

The State Legature will probably stand as follow House, 46 Union and 54 Democ Senate 20 Union and 13 Democ. It is generally conceded here that there will be a Democratic majority of one on joint ballot.

A Growl From Bermuda.

BOSTON, Friday Oct 17.

A Bermuda letter published in the Halifax papers of the 11th inst, complains of the visit of Admiral Wilkes to that port with three United States war vessels as follows:

"The Admiral arrived on the 25th of September, direct from New-York, in four days, and remained in port about five days in defiance, of the Queen's proclamation allowing only 24 hours stay."

In conclusion, the letter says:

"It would seem that Wilkes had a double object in coming to Bermuda: 1st. To insult the authorities, for he must have known what a defenceless state we were in; and 2d. To capture or destroy the vessels in port—six steamers that are engaged, either directly, in the trade with the Rebel ports—and to destroy all the powder, of which there is said to be a large quantity stored on one of the small islands in Castle Harbor. The Admiral and one of his steamers has gone out of sight from the land, but the other one, having coaled and repaired, is cruising outside of St. George. Complaints are also made that British vessel are occasionally brought to by Union guns while entering the harbor of St. George."

A Tour Thro' the Rebel Army.

A Harper's Ferry correspondent relates the substance of a statement, who has been within the rebel lines, for the past few weeks. The Doctor corroborates the accounts we have previously had of their utter destitution in the way of clothing and subsistance, and says that an article of clothing, other than a pair of old worn out pants, and an equally dilapidated coat, is a rarity—that, excepting at some of the General's headquarters, not a tent is to be seen; and as for a blanket, not a soul among them have even the semblance of so needful an article. He states, too, that since their visit to Maryland, and the consequent disappointment attending that movement, the officers are losing much of the control over their men that they were wont to have, and that they (the men) are beginning to talk freely and frankly among themselves of the utter hopelessness of their cause; that the spark of mutiny and rebellion and general desertion is visible, and it may at any time burst forth in full blaze.

Iowa Election.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Returns of the Iowa election come in slowly. The Democrats acknowledge the election of five Republican members of Congress. Mahony, Dem. in the third district, is beaten by 3,000.

BURLINGTON, Iowa Oct. 17.—Sufficient returns received determine all six Republican Congressmen elected. The State ticket is also elected by about 10,000 majority.

The President Among the Rebels.

A letter to New York Commercial, speaking of the President's visit to General M'Clellan's Army, says:

The President's visit was fraught with many interesting incidents. After leaving General Richardson's headquarters, the President's party proceeded to a barn, which was used as a temporary hospital for rebel wounded. On entering, the sad scenes that follow battle met the eye.

Mr. Lincoln, after looking around, remarked to the Confederate wounded that if they had no objection he would be pleased to tade them by the hand. The solemn obligations said he, which we owe to our country and posterity compel the prosecution of this war; and it follows that many on both sides must become victims, and although they are our enemies through uncontrollable circumstances, he bore them no malice, and could take them by the hand with as much sympathy and good feeling as if they were brothers. After a short silence those of the Confederates who could walk came forward, and each of them silently shook hands with the President.

Mr. Lincoln and General M'Clellan went to the bedsides of those who were unable to rise and cheered them, saying that every care should be bestowed upon them to ameliorate their sufferings. It was a touching scene, and there was not a dry eye among the wounded.

The War.

There are indications of the advance of the Army of the Potomac.—Two strong reconnoissances were made on Thursday to ascertain the enemy's strength and position. One division of cavalry and artillery, commanded by General Hancock advanced in the direction of Charlestown. No opposition was manifested until our army arrived near Charlestown, when the enemy made a decisive stand in an advantageous position, and resisted for three or four hours our advance, until our artillery compelled them to retreat. The latest report from this division is that it has advanced beyond Charlestown toward Winchester, and no enemy have been met with. The second under command of Gen. Humphreys, from Gen. Porter's corps, crossed at Shepherdstown without resistance, and moved toward Martinsburg and Bunker Hill, designing to co-operate with Gen. Hancock beyond Shepherdstown.—When they met the rebels a skirmish occurred, the enemy falling rapidly back. Musketry firing has been heard in the direction of our advanced columns.

The Washington Star of Friday afternoon states that the rebel General Stuart, with a force of between 2,500 and 3,000 cavalry, reached Leesburg on Sunday last and halted there until near noon of Monday. In the meantime a considerable force of rebel infantry and artillery approached within supportable distance of Stuart, in hope that an attack would be made on Stuart by our army, not being aware that he was supported. Stuart, however, took good care to move to Winchester before a considerable force from the vicinity could get to him.

The rebel force commanded by Colonels Anderson, Johnson and Martin, and which robbed the steamer Hazel Dell on Wednesday, is supposed to have numbered 2,000. Groceries, clothing and powder were taken to the value of three thousand dollars, and they threaten to burn all boats falling into their hands after the first of November.

The Admiral and Philadelphia transports, were burned at Columbia day before yesterday, supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. The Admiral, while burning, floated against the Philadelphia from which a thousand kegs of powder were taken before she was destroyed. Maj. Dodge was slightly wounded by a fragment of a shell. The loss is estimated at seventy-five thousand dollars.

All the old rebel earthworks on the Potomac have been destroyed by gun boats. While engaged in destroying the fortification at Cockpit point, the rebels, with four field pieces made their appearance, but a few shots, however, caused them to refrain from any hostile movements.

Capt. Sperry, commanding at Birds Point, has returned from a scouting expedition, and report the rebels in Mississippi county, Missouri, very active. The search of the surrounding neighborhood were flocking into camp at Little River Ferry, twenty miles from New Madrid. It is thought that the force in that vicinity is one thousand or fifteen hundred. Squads of horsemen are scouring the county, stealing horses and plundering private citizens.

Gen. Price is said to be gathering large numbers of troops at Hopes Springs, with a view of attacking some point on the Mobile and Ohio Road. There is a rumor here, apparently not well authenticated, that an attack had been made on the Federal troops at Island No. 10. There has been no boat from Memphis for three days. Trouble is feared on the river.

Captain Tiller, of the bark Virginia, which was destroyed by the pirate "290," has arrived home, and informs the New Bedford Mercury that Capt. Semmes was very independent, short and quick in his remarks, looking after and treating his prisoners and men as dogs. Some of the officers were more social, and wished themselves well out of the scrape they had got into. The Alabama left Berkenhead, England on a trial trip, but went to sea and is now under the direction of the English, who are to furnish her with supplies at the different islands where she is to stop, and while she is to continue to prey on our commerce.

Reliable information states Quantrel, with about 200 men, made a raid on Shawneestown, Kansas, on Friday, burning the greater portion of the town and killing nine citizens, and carrying off all the horses he could find. He passed Little Santa Fe, and on his way to Kansas, returning in the same direction at 5 o'clock next morning. Considerable excitement prevails here.

Gen. Stahl, on Saturday, with a detachment of cavalry, met a large force of rebel cavalry and a battery of artillery, near Thoroughfare Gap, and attacked them, capturing eight of the enemy and one caisson filled with ammunition. The enemy was routed, and General Stahl is in pursuit.

Telegraphic communication was reopened with Paris, Kentucky on Friday. A detachment of the 7th Ohio cavalry, cut off from our forces at Lexington, arrived at Paris and report that John Morgan, with about 1500 men, entered Lexington at day light this morning, driving out five hundred cavalry. Sufficient reinforcements will reach Paris to night to hold that place.

☞ Gen. Prentiss says that the effect of the Emancipation Proclamation upon the South was unmistakable. The rebels, in all their conversation alluded to it in a manner indicating that it was the one thing they dreaded. The negroes were being driven into the interior for safety. At Petersburg large numbers were congregated, a thousand in one pen, crowded together like cattle in the slave pens.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 19.—The steamer John A. Warner, flag of truce boat, from Aiken's Landing, arrived last evening just before the Baltimore boat left. Five hundred and sixty Union prisoners came down, in charge of Major R. W. Shenk, One Hundred and Thirty fifth Pennsylvania. They were delayed nearly one day by running aground above City Point.

This morning the Baltimore boat brought in from Fort M'Henry eighty six rebel prisoners. The flag of truce boat Matamora left to-day to convey them to Aixen's Landing. They are privates, and mostly wounded.

The Petersburg Express, of the 15th inst., says:

"Two thousand Yankee prisoners are daily expected to arrive in Petersburg for the North. Wild geese and wild duck are very plenty on the James river, but there are no sportsmen to shoot them. Wheat has declined considerably, being now held at $5 25 per bushel. We fear much trouble and vast suffering from the scarcity of coal.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 16th says: "We infer, that the Unionists will soon make a desperate effort to force their iron-clads pass Drury's Bluff. Forewarned, let us be forearmed."

The Richmond Examiner of the 17th says: "The good people of Charleston, South Charolina, have had a celebration in their city, baptizing a marine ram, built there. As Congress has failed to make any enactments in regard to martial law, follows that it has no longer any existence in this Confederacy, and any attempt to continue martial law in any form or disguise is in derogation of the law making the power of government and in defiance of the constitution.

"Our Southern Confederacy is sadly afflicted with dishonest Postmasters, especially in North Carolina.—The cause of this complaint is, the non-receipt of subscriptions said to be forwarded by mail to newspapers."

CINCINNATI, October 19.—Returns from sixty-six counties give a Democratic majority of eighteen thousand Democratic gain.

The Democratic maj. in the State will be about twelve thousand.

The Congressional delegation stands Democrats fourteen. Union five

☞ In sending boxes or packages to soldiers, their friends should remember that the Government has recently placed Inspectors in Express Offices at Washington, Alexandria, Georgetown, Baltimore and all offices near the army who open and inspect each box or package, and when found to contain Liquor of any kind—even one bottle—they seize and confiscate the entire contents. Attention to this matter will prevent the loss to soldiers of articles which would be useful to them.

☞ Passenger statistics show that within nine months 17,000 people have arrived by sea at San Francisco in excess of departures. These, in addition to a large number of overland immigrants, make the increase of population more this year than since 1852. The overland immigration to Oregon and Washoe this year will amount to about 5,000. The rear of immigration, some 500 wagons, was expected at Walla Walla, on the 15th of this month.

☞ One of the arrows discharged by the Indians in recent massacre at Medelia was taken from the body of one of the victims on the day after the fatal occurrences. The arrow penetrated through the heart to the depth of twelve inches. The Indians discharge these instruments with wonderful accuracy and terrible effect.—Instances were seen of their having done entirely through the body.

☞ All the school houses in Louisville are now used for hospital purposes, and the schools discontinued. The churches will be devoted to similar purposes if necessary; and the Journal says there are many palatial mansions of the rebel sympathizers which would make first rate hospitals. A large government building is soon to be erected.

JOE LANE'S SPECULATIONS.—Gen. Lane, when last heard from, was on his way to the upper mines in Washington Territory with a thousand head of cattle, from the profits of which it is believed by the Oregonians that he will realize fifty thousand dollars.

COLORADO.—Governor Evans, of Colorado, is in Washington, in order to make arrangements for the protection of that Territory from Indian depredations, and guarding the overland route by which the people are furnished with domestic supplies.

☞ The wife of Dr. Livingston the African explorer, joined him at Zambesi last spring, and died on the Shire of the 28th of April last, from the effects of the African fever. Her husband attended her night and day, and was with her when she died.

☞ The Surgeon General intends to issue an order prohibiting amputation at the hip joint on the battle field—such operations invariably proving fatal, and being mostly abandoned by English and French Surgeons as well as the best American.

☞ All the Rebel infantry and artillery have left Western Virginia, after having secured large quantities of salt from the wells in the valley. It is conjectured that they have gone to East Tennessee to re-inforce Bragg. There are no Rebels now in the Kanawha Valley, except Col. Jenkins's guerillas.

Defaced Postage Stamps.

The use of canceled postage stamps for currency, and or stamping letters, has excited considerable attention.—The Department at Washington has determined to use every exertion to detect this mean species of fraud, and in a circular letter to a postmasters thoughout the country, the Assistant Postmaster General says: "Please cause most careful examination to be made of letters deposited in your office, and send me especially all suspected cases, so that the writers may be discovered; or, if any in case you have means to know the writer, without having the letter opened here, you will proceed at once to a proper investigation. The Postmaster General is anxious to make some public examples under this law if violations occur as apprehended, strong temptation being offered by the extensive use of ordinary postage stamps as currency."

As the improper use of postage stamps is a felony under the law of the United States, and the punishment of the crime is very heavy, those practising it would do well to hesitate before incurring so serious a responsibility for so small a profit.—Harris. Ted.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

LONG marches, sore throat, sore mouth, blistered feet, ingrowing nails, chafing, fistula, mortification, piles, rheumatism, sore eyes, stiffness, wherever there is pain or disease to meet, there will be found the most perfect remedy in the world. Its searching power is felt in the minutest ramifications of the system, and all ALL HEALING & COOLING SALVE wherever it goes to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It lubricates and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for it stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightful wounds.

WIVES AND SISTERS OF OUR VOLUNTEERS

You cannot put into the Knapsacks of your Husbands and brothers, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this

EXTRAORDINARY MILITARY SALVE.

The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chill night air, is often seized with most VIOLENT PAINS, COUGHS and SUFFOCATING HOARSNESS, first symptoms of QUICK CONSUMPTION, but if supplied with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the Ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the SEVEREST PAINS and stop the most distressing or DANGEROUS COUGH Therefore we say to the whole army,

SOLDIERS ATTENTION!!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES, many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the Soldier in Camp, DIARRHEA, DYSENTERY, SCURVY, SORES and SCROFULOUS ERUPTIONS, all disappear like a charm before these PILLS AND OINTMENT, and now while the Cry rings throughout the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place in their hands these PRECIOUS REMEDIES that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the Wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succor in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words Holloway, New York and London, are discernable as a watermark in every leaf of the book. Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

Sold at the Manufactory of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES
OF THE
BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS
And Ointment.

ALL WHO have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care that they be amply supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS

Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly a produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE,

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner, they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, OR SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES,

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack, and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflamation.

Every Soldier's knapsack and Seaman's chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

 Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized earth.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

MARRIAGE.

ILLS loves and hates, sorrows and angers, hopes and fears, regrets and joys; MANHOOD, how lost, how restored; the nature, treatment and radical cure of spermatorrhœa or seminal weakness; involuntary emissions, sexual debility and impediments to marriage generally; nervousness, consumption, fits, mental and physical incapacity, resulting from SELF-ABUSE—are fully explained in the MARRIAGE GUIDE, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every man or woman who desires to limit the number of their offspring to their circumstances. Every pain, disease and ache incidental to youth, maturity and old age, is fully explained; every particle of knowledge that should be known is here given. It is full of engravings. In fact, it discloses secrets that every one should know; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in specie or postage stamps.

Address Dr. WM. YOUNG, 416 Spruce st., above Fourth, Philadelphia.

☞ Afflicted and Unfortunate, no matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any of the notorious QUACKS—native or foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of Dr. Young's Pamphlet, which teaches a cheap and certain means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life.

DR. YOUNG can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publication, at his office, 416 Spruce Street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

LOWELL, MASS., 30th Dec., 1858.

DR. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the consultant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. ERBN. KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best remedy for the purposes ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Feb. 7, 1856.

DR. AYER: I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of whooping cough, croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.

HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTREAL, L., writes, 26 Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pectoral by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MACUNGIE, PA., Feb. 4, 1856.

SIR: Your Cherry Pectoral is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years. HENRY L. PARES, Merchant.

A. M. RAMSEY, M. D., ATHENS, Monroe Co., IOWA, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectoral for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 6, 1856.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, by whom we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill; for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Yours with gratitude and regard,
ORLANDO SHELBY, of SHELBYVILLE.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE science of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best and most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:—

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Dysentery, Headache arising from a foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous complaints, Kidney Affections, Piles, and Fistula, all of which require an aperient to cleanse the system, and for which these Pills are the best known remedy. Keeping the bowels free from the many diseases to which they are subject, will prevent a long list of painful complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other unnamed complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S Pills, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

CRITTENDEN'S
PHILADELPHIA COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,
N. E. corner of 7th & Chestnut St.,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS Institution, which was established in 1844, and is now consequently in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates, hundreds of the most successful Merchants and Business Men of our Country.

The object of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparation for business.

The branches taught are, Book-keeping, as applicable to the various departments of trade; Penmanship, both plain and ornamental; Commercial Law, mathematics, Navigation, Civil Engineering, Drawing, Phonography, and Modern Languages.

The system of Instruction is peculiar; no classes or set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

Catalogues are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

In extensive accommodations, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this Institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain at the same time A DIPLOMA, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

☞ CRITTENDEN'S Series of Treatises on Book-Keeping, now more widely circulated than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.

SELLERS' LIVER PILLS.

(THE ORIGINAL, ONLY TRUE AND GENUINE)

For 25 Years a Staple Remedy for
LIVER COMPLAINT
AND ALL BILIOUS DISEASES, &c.

The ordinary evidences of Disease of the Liver are Pain and tenderness in the region of the Liver, sometimes dull and aching, increased by pressure, pain and Uneasiness in Breathing, Pain in the right Shoulder, uneasiness when lying upon the left side, increased size of the Liver, Short and Dry Cough, disordered stomach, Nausea, Yellowish Tinge on the eyes and skin, Headache, yellowish fur on the tongue, Bitterish taste in the mouth, heavy, dull sensation in the Brain, Depression of Spirits, amounting almost to Insanity, slight Fever toward evening, Loss of Appetite, Melancholy, with moroseness and Hypochondria, Neuralgia, dullness, a general feeling of Uncasiness, Languor, drowsiness, the patient conscious of something wrong in himself, and disposed to see nothing right in things about him, yet wholly unable to explain the cause of his sensations—with many others easily detected by resemblances to some one or other of the above. The Liver Pill will almost certainly arrest the disease if taken upon the appearance of the above symptoms, which if allowed to take its course, becomes chronic in its nature and almost incurable, producing great and constantly increasing suffering.

The use of this medicine will neither create a new disease nor complicate an existing one, but, in most cases, will prepare the system for the more vigorous remedies of the physician, should it be necessary to call in his aid.

Sellers' VERMIFUGE.
WORMS!

Every year Thousands of Children die from this horrible evil. This alarming mortality loudly calls for increased watchfulness: and for greater care in the selection of the remedy. The sweeping opposition of many physicians to advertised worm medicines is, in a measure, justified by the injurious qualities of some of the vermifuges, and the positive inefficiency of most of the so-called "Worm Confections," "Worm Candies," "Worm Teas," &c. Even if some of the latter are as harmless as they are inefficient, THE DELAY ITSELF MAY COST LIFE. No thoughtful, sensible mother, will thus trifle with the life of her child.

LET PHYSICIANS SPEAK.

SELLERS' VERMIFUGE THE BEST IN USE.

HERE IS THE PROOF.

Licking Station, Ky. Dec. 17, 1845.

MR. R. E. SELLERS:—Your Vermifuge possesses more virtue than any I ever used. I will state a case where I gave one vial. My brother's child was pining and wasting to a mere skeleton. In 36 hours after I gave the Vermifuge, the enormous quantity of upward of six hundred worms were passed. The child, that was given up for lost, is now as well as any in the neighborhood.

MR. R. E. SELLERS:—Having used it in my practice for the last four or five years, I think it decidedly the best preparation of the kind. I have heretofore used the preparation of the several other manufacturers. Yours, respectfully,

D. COUCH, M. D.

We might enumerate hundreds of other cases, were it necessary, but Sellers' Vermifuge has stood the searching test of the medical faculty and public for more than a quarter of a century, which, of itself, is conclusive of its entire safety, as well as the certainty of its effect.

NOTICE.—Extraordinary inducements are offered to dealers to recommend and sell other Vermifuges. Do not let unprincipled men palm off any of these on you. The best at any price is the cheapest, therefore ask for Sellers' Vermifuge, and take no other.
